Please consider volunteering to work on the issues listed below for the 2017-2018 term. Some issues involve on-going commitment; other would involve a one-time-only effort. Family and Consumer Education in Wisconsin needs all of us, individually and collectively, to better our profession and our organization. Thank you for considering these opportunities!

Yes/No/Maybe	Committees	Yes/No/Maybe	Activities
	Mentor New Professional		Would you consider serving as an officer of WFCE?
	Scholarships and Awards		Would you plan, host, or present at a WFCE CESA Networking Meeting?
	Public Relations		Would you share public relations tools that promote Family and Consumer Sciences Education?
	Professional Development		Would you present a session at a networking meeting, summit, or conference?
	Student Mentors		Would you serve on a planning committee for the 2018 WFCE Annual Conference?
			Would you write a letter to a legislator to support Family and Consumer Science Education?
